HAPPY
Feast
Day
&
Founders
Day

Dear Confreres,

As we celebrate the Feast of the Mother of Compassion, our special Patroness, we are invited to reflect deeply on her example and the profound role she plays in our lives as Missionaries of St. Francis de Sales (MSFS). The Mother of Compassion stands as a powerful symbol of deep faith, love, and compassion in the midst of suffering. On this occasion, let us draw inspiration from her life and the teachings of St. Francis de Sales and Fr. Peter Mermier, renewing our commitment to live out these virtues in our mission. Let us focus on the five key points for our reflection and inspiration:

1. Faithful Endurance in Suffering: "Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene." (John 19:25). The Mother of Compassion teaches us the virtue of patience and endurance in the face of great sorrow. Despite witnessing the agony and death of her Son, she remained steadfast in her faith. We too must carry our crosses with grace, trusting in God's providence even in moments of trial.

2. Compassionate Love: "When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son!' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother!'" (John 19:26-27). Mary's heart was pierced by sorrow, yet she never wavered in her compassion for others. As MSFS, we are called to emulate this compassionate love in our ministries, offering care and comfort to the broken-hearted, just as Mary stood beside her suffering Son.

3.Humility and Gentleness: “He has brought down the mighty from their thrones and exalted those of humble estate.” (Luke 1:52). St. Francis de Sales emphasized the importance of living with “hearts that are humble and gentle.” The Mother of Compassion embodies this spirit, showing humility before God’s will. We are called to embrace this humility in our own lives and work, serving others with gentleness and kindness.

4.Total Surrender to God's Will: “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.” (Lk. 1:38) Fr. Peter Mermier often spoke about embracing God’s will in all things. Like the Mother of Compassion, who surrendered completely to the mystery of God’s plan, we are called to trust in God’s will, even when it is difficult or painful, knowing that our sufferings can lead to redemption and transformation.

5.Missionary Zeal in Times of Trial: "But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart." (Luke 2:19). Despite her compassion, Mary remained devoted to her role in salvation history. She was present at the birth of the Church and continues to intercede for us. As missionaries, we must carry forward this zeal, especially during challenging times, bringing hope to those in despair and faith to those in doubt.

As we honour the Mother of Compassion on this feast day, let us reflect on her deep faith, compassion, and perseverance. Let us integrate the teachings of St. Francis de Sales and Fr. Mermier, imitating her virtues in our ministry and daily lives. May she guide us as we continue our mission with humility, gentleness, and steadfast devotion.

May Our Lady, Mother of Compassion, intercede for us and strengthen us in our commitment to serve with faith and love.

I WISH YOU ALL A VERY HAPPY FEAST OF OUR MOTHER OF COMPASSION.

“I Want Mission”: Fr. Peter Mermier’s Legacy Today

Fr. Peter Mermier, our beloved Founder, was driven by his profound desire to bring the Gospel to those in need. His famous cry, “I Want Mission!” exemplifies his passion for evangelization, education, and service to the poor, providing valuable lessons for us today.

Fr. Mermier’s passion for evangelization was evident in his tireless work to revive the faith in post-Revolution France. He declared, “The love of God impels us to go out, to work, to make Jesus Christ known and loved.” His commitment to parish missions, focusing on rural areas, challenges us today to engage with those spiritually detached, offering faith and hope.

His commitment to education and renewal was central to his vision, as he believed education could transform both individuals and society. His saying, “The heart of education is the education of the heart,” encourages us today to focus on holistic education. He also exhorts us to focus on educating, especially the underprivileged and the marginalized.

Fr. Mermier’s service to the needy reflected Christ’s compassion. His care for the poor and sick was essential to his mission, as he wrote, “To serve the poor is to serve Jesus Christ Himself.” His life inspires us to respond to the needs of the vulnerable with empathy and action, embodying his mission today.

Through his writings and life, Fr. Peter Mermier calls us to live out the mission by evangelizing, educating, and serving with love and dedication. I Wish you all a very Happy Founder’s Day.

Local Superiors' Meeting

The Local Superiors meeting was held on 19th August 2024 at St. John's High School, Nagpur. The meeting began with opening words of welcome by Fr. Nobit Kombanathottathil. The session started after the lighting of the lamp. Fr. Naveen Saldhana OP conducted the morning sessions. The vote of thanks was given by Fr. Albin and the day ended with tea in the evening.

Here is a summary of the two talks given by Fr. Naveen Saldhana OP

Talk 1: The Role of the Local Superior

The Superior's role is a call within a call, helping members to answer questions like "Where is God calling us?" and "What am I doing for God?" The Superior must animate and delegate authority, providing the right information, listening deeply, and encouraging sincerely. Five matters that should not be delegated: rituals, confidential matters, policy matters, crisis of members, and personal matters. The Superior should enable members to be Christlike by building them up, creating a community, and developing communities beyond their own institutions. Evils to be avoided by the Superior include abuse, speaking ill of confreres, betraying confidentiality, lying, being partial, spying, and encouraging tale-bearing.

Qualities of a Superior include mission awareness, commitment, credibility, faithfulness to Gospel values, joy, confidence, human maturity, consistency, optimism, and enthusiasm.

Talk 2: Strategies to Strengthen Local Communities

Building communities linked in communion with Christ and the Mission of Christ is essential. Communities have become fragile, with 2000 professed members leaving every year due to loss of faith and lack of genuine community life. Strategies to strengthen relationships among members include: Building community linked in communion with Christ and the Mission of Christ. Regularity of prayer life at the community and personal levels, forming relationships that are cross-cultural, cross-lingual, and transnational. Personal deepening of faith: Realizing that members have made a free choice to work with people who are given to them to serve

Characteristics of an Ideal Community Include:

Constant desire to live in a community, sense of belongingness, fulfillment, and rejoicing in each other's successes, happiness with their work and willingness to move to another assignment when needed.

Regular collective and personal assessment is necessary to keep the tone of community life healthy. Relationships are important in communities, and it is good to gauge which type of relationship one belongs to - Brick, Bird, Bee, or Butterfly. The Butterfly model of relationship is ideal for a religious community.

PASTORAL VISIT TO CHIPINDU AND DOMUÈ PARISHES

Bishop and Missionary Team with Newly Installed Ministers of Communion

Bishop Conducting Catechesis

From September 3rd to 8th, Rt. Rev. Diamantino Guapo Antunes I.M.C., Bishop of Tete, made his pastoral visit to the parishes of St. Francis de Sales in Chipindu and St. Peter Claver in Domuè. These two parishes, administered by the Fransalians, encompass a large geographic area: Chipindu with 67 Christian communities across 15 pastoral zones, and Domuè with 37 Christian communities spread over 15 pastoral zones. This visit marked a historic moment as it was the first pastoral visit for the newly established parish of Chipindu, created on September 4, 2023, and the third visit by Dom Diamantino to the Domuè parish.

During his visit, the Bishop covered various pastoral zones, celebrated Masses, conducted catechesis, and conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation on 181 faithful. In Chipindu, he celebrated Mass in the large parish church, which is nearing completion, with only painting and glazing remaining, where he also installed 21 Extraordinary Ministers of Distribution of Holy Communion. The Bishop's evaluation of the first year of the newly established Chipindu Parish was highly positive.

He also blessed and laid the foundation stone for a new chapel at the residence of the Congregation of the Little Missionary Sisters of Mary Immaculate in Domuè, who collaborate with the Fransalians in these two parishes. Furthermore, he held meetings with the Missionary Team and the Pastoral Councils of both parishes.

The pastoral visit concluded on September 8 with a Solemn Eucharist at St. Peter Claver Parish in Domuè, where Fr. Ashok Minj MSFS was officially installed as the new PP, and Friar Joaquim Floriano José, OFM, a native of Domuè parish, was ordained to the priesthood.

Congratulations to Fathers Ashok Minj, Linus Kudikulam, and Vishal Barse for the tremendous work they do in these parishes.
